Gene, '68

Best of luck to a guy that really knows how to raise hell in Science, English and Spanish classes. I am looking forward to having you in My classes next year for some more good times. It has been a pleasure helping you to cause trouble in every class. Be good and don't get into any more than you can handle. (That means you have a lot of fun trouble.) Have fun all the rest of your life and don't cause trouble.

Gene,

You one of the sweetest boys I know. I've really enjoyed having you in my "Spanish" class. I know you really brightened it up with your wonderful personality. Stay as sweet as you are now and you will go far in life. Remember me and the "good-ole-Class of '68" always.

Love Ya,
Shirley

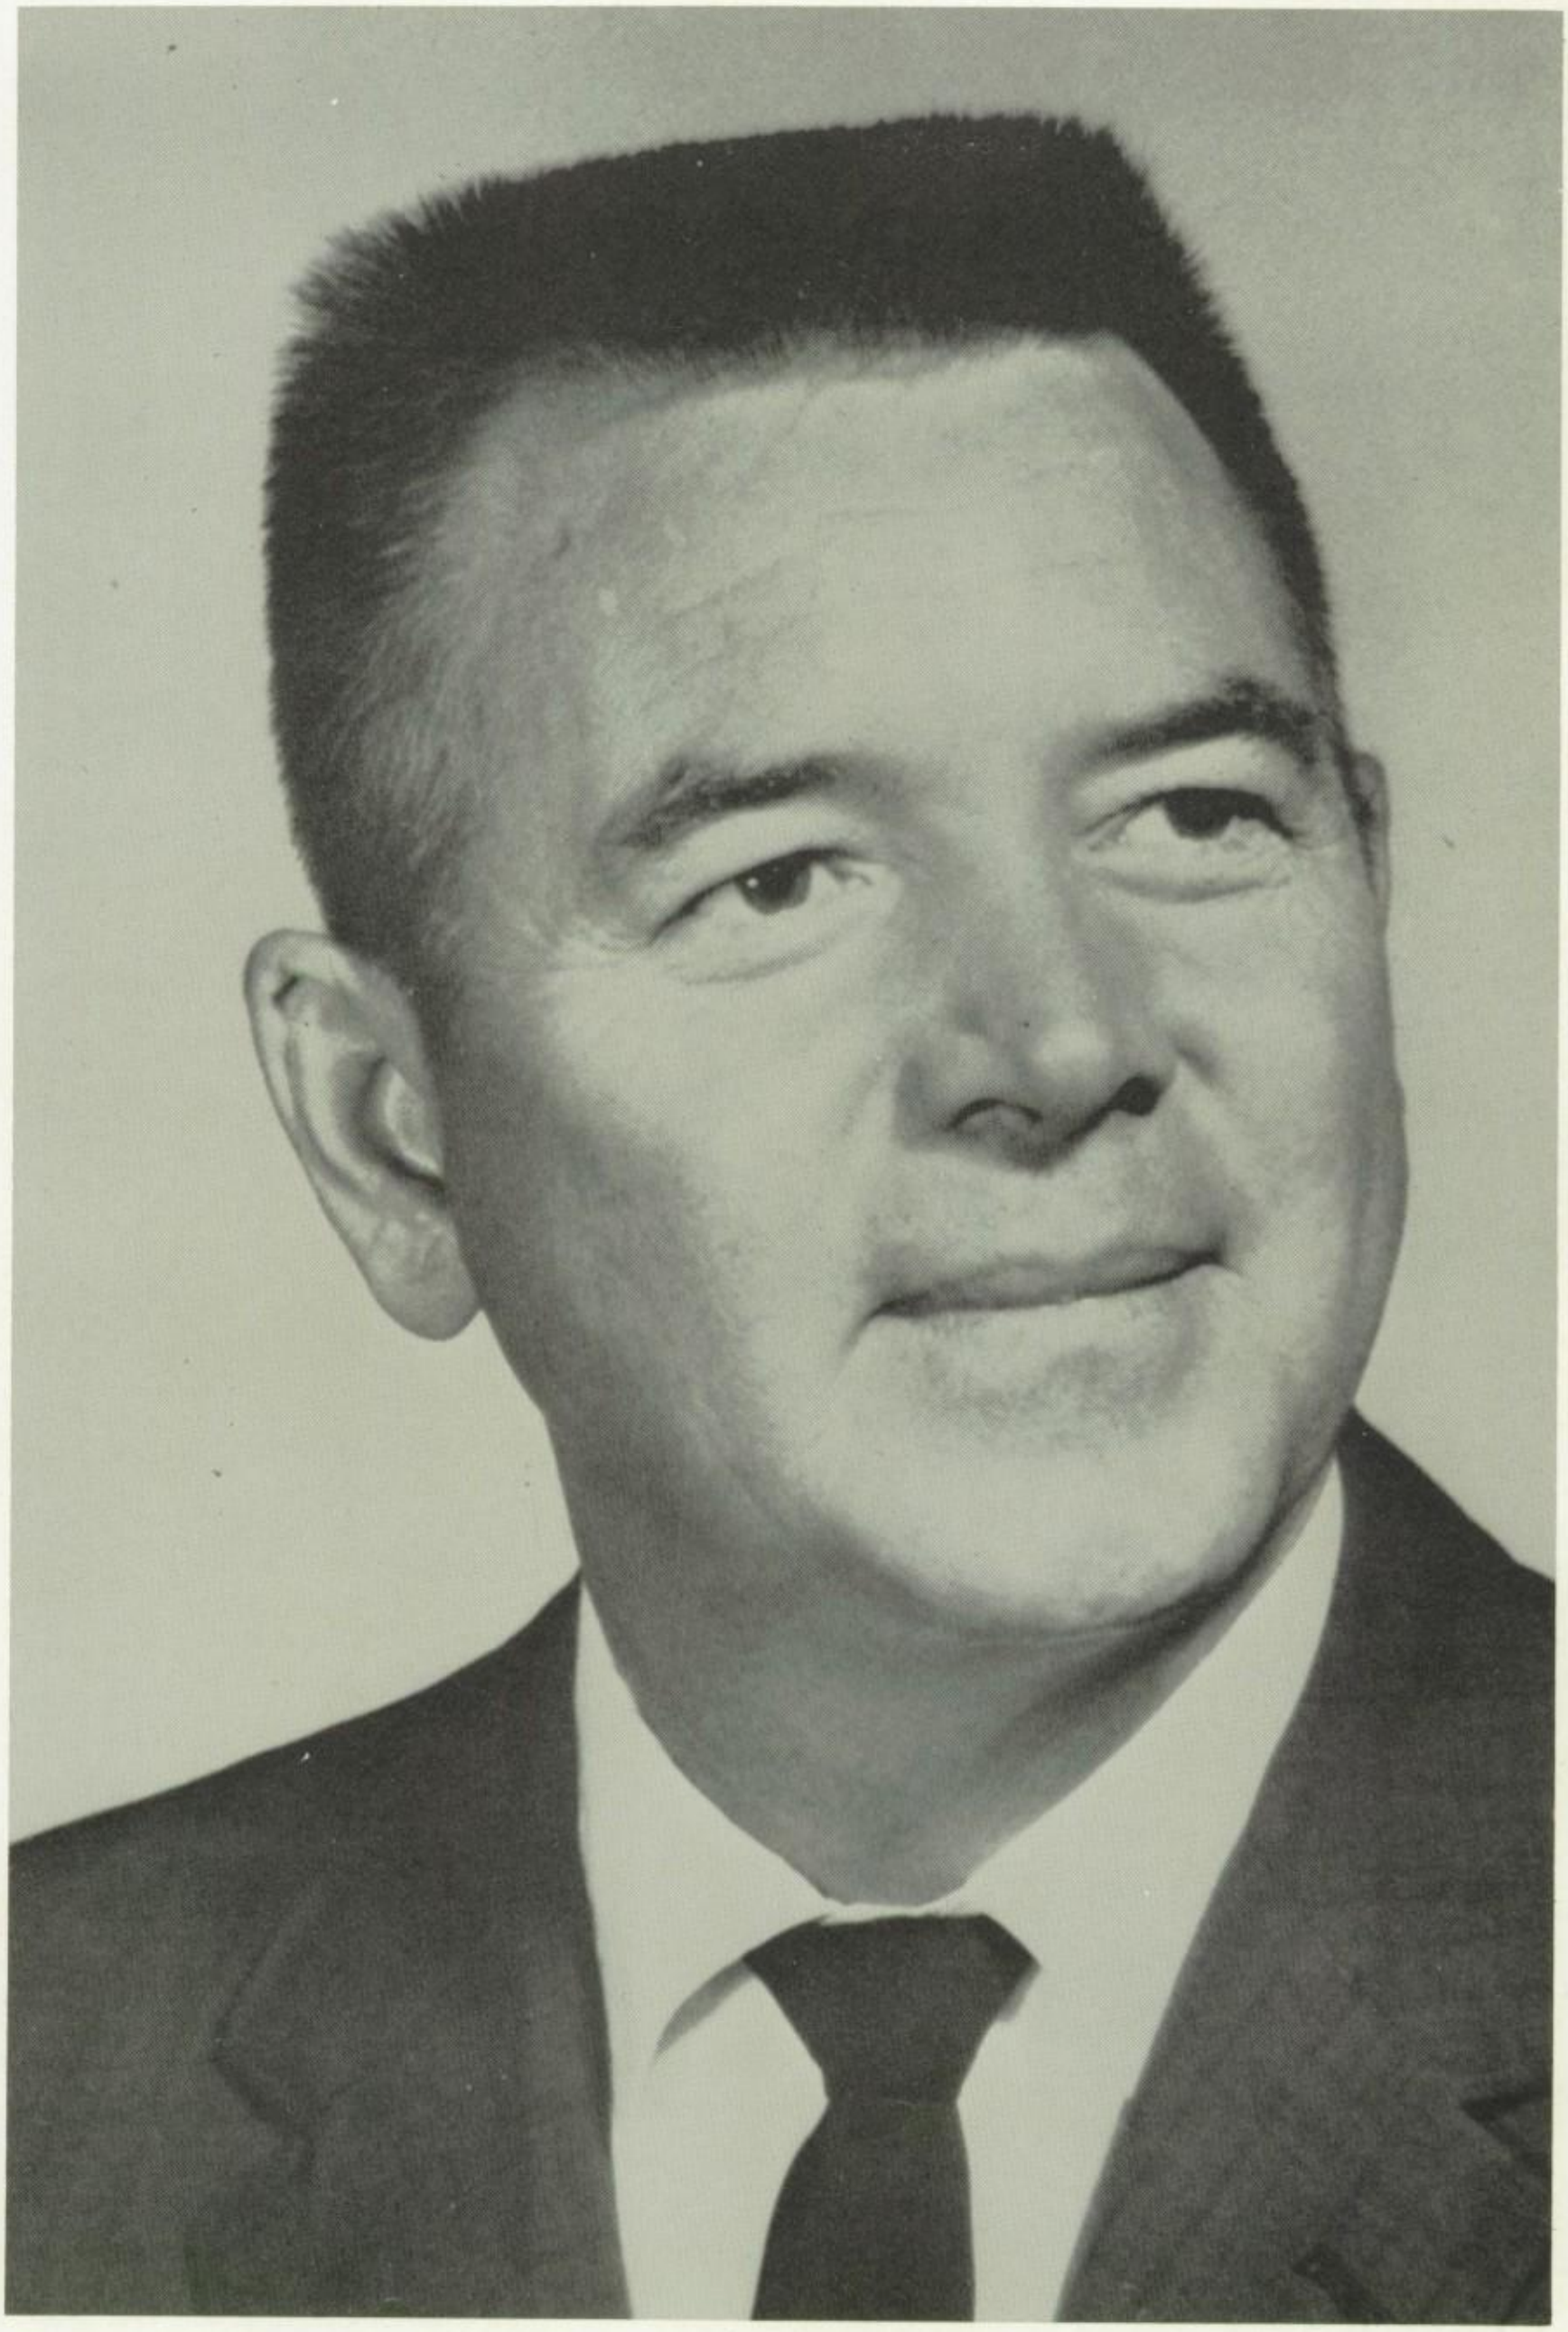
As a means of expressing our appreciation of one who exemplifies quiet dedication and devotion to duty, we, the Stray Leaves Staff of 1965, proudly dedicate this annual to our helpful and understanding coach and friend who has rendered every service possible to uphold the spirit of Mount Dora High,

ED HANSEL



The pathways through high school are memorable ones. We hope that through this book, we have portrayed a span of these pathways to the future upon which each of us travels.

Education is in itself a wide and heavily traveled pathway. There are many forks in this pathway — each leading to some goal set by those who are traveling upon it.

Just as some roads are unpaved so are some pathways to success unpaved. There are many rough and threatening sections. However, if the goal is kept in view, all difficulties can be surmounted, and the pathway will have served its purpose of furnishing a means of guidance.

We are proud of our faculty who are the guideposts along our pathway through high school. Without them our trek would be futile.

There are so many pathways that wind and wind . . .

"The bitter paths wherein I stray . . . "

"Books are paths that upward lead . . . "

"Don't strew your pathway with those dreadful urs . . . "

"I will point you out the right path of a virtuous and noble education..."

"To err from the right path is common to mankind..."

"No path is wholly rough..."

"From duty's path, however steep, we ask for no ill timed release; only - for the strength to finish well our task..."

"...follow resolutely the one straight path before you, let neither obstacles nor temptations induce you to leave it."

"Afoot and light-hearted I take to the open road, healthy, free, the world before me, the long brown path before me leading wherever I choose..."

MRS. LOTTIE HOEKER
Secretary

Mrs. Hoeker, who became our secretary on February 1, is continuing the high standards of the secretarial staff. We welcome you to our school, Mrs. Hoeker!

Mr. G. E. Molnar

Principal

The school year 1964-1965 marks a significant milestone in my career as a professional educator.

This is my first year in Mount Dora and my first year as a high school principal.

To say that I am delighted to be in Mount Dora would be an understatement, for I feel extremely fortunate in being chosen to serve here.

As you read this statement we will be nearing the end of our first year together. We will have agreed as well as disagreed on many problems, but most important of all we will have come to know and understand each other.

To each of you, I express my most sincere thanks, for without each of you there would have been little chance of success.

The school year 1964-1965 will be my most memorable and shall become the standard by which I shall evaluate all future educational endeavors.

G. E. Molnar

Mr. J. M. Morgan

County Superintendent of Public Instruction

Mr. Morgan, County Superintendent, was principal of Mount Dora High School for five years. He is held in high regard by the faculty and students for his capable guidance and beneficial advice. He is supervising the Lake County schools with outstanding judgment and leadership.

Junior Dolores Caudel being tapped for National Honor Society.

The junior year for the Class of '66 is drawing to a close. In a few short weeks the juniors will be seniors. They will always remember their junior year as one of the most eventful of their school life. The play and prom were two of the many memorable events on which they will happily reminisce.

Eighth Grade Officers

8-A Nancy King, Marilyn Miller, Nancy Ham, Steve Vaughn.

This year's eighth grade at Mount Dora High School is one of the most enthusiastic classes on our campus. Although not officially in high school, these students eagerly support and participate in many of the High School's activities.

Divided into three sections, the students have chosen capable officers to lead them. Section A is led by president, Steve Vaughn; vice-president, Nancy King; secretary, Nancy Ham; treasurer, Marilyn Miller; and Student Council Representative, David Potsko. 8-B has chosen as president, Laurie Knorr; as vice-president, Bobby Bryant; as secretary, Eddie Barks; as treasurer, Joyce Hutcheson; and as Student Council Representative, Robert Ashton.

Selected to lead 8-C are president, Rebecca Ryder; vice-president, Larry Husebo; secretary, Anita Lynn; treasurer, Faye Key; and Student Council Representative, Albion Land.

8-B Joyce Hutcheson, Bobby Bryant, Laurie Knorr. 8-C Faye Key, Anita Lynn, Rebecca Ryder, Larry Husebo.

Seventh Grade Officers

That new, rushing mass of students at Mount Dora High School is the seventh graders. Although lost and confused at first, they soon fitted into the school life like "old timers."
Choosing class officers was a new experience for them, but they chose well. To lead 7-A Kathy Stewart was chosen president; Becky McDonald, as vice-president; Pauline Smith, as secretary; Wendy Rainey, as treasurer; and Phyllis Jorgensen, as Student Council Representative. 7-B is served by president, Don Christopher; vice-president, Julie Melvin; secretary, Kerry McWhorter; treasurer, Terry Dyer; and Student Council Representative, Steve Kelly. Officers for 7-C are president, Jeff Elmore; vice-president, Jerri Upchurch; secretary-treasurer, Janice Wingler; and Student Council Representative, Joe Crawley.
Although they were divided into three sections, the students sometimes met as one class. Chosen to lead the entire class were president, Mike Robinson; vice-president, Mark Pasill; secretary, Janice Wingler; and treasurer, Terry Dyer.

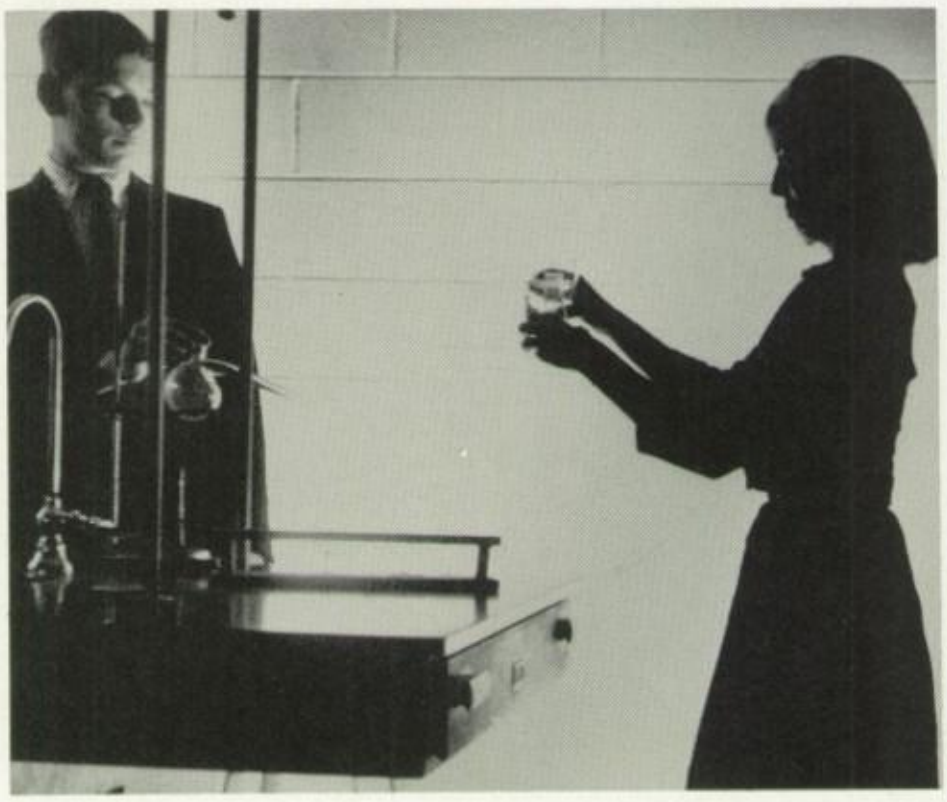
ACADEMICS

Biology is a class in which the wonder of a living being is investigated. This insight into the make-up and structure of our bodies takes us on a giant step down the pathway of knowledge.

The earth is composed of many elements, and this year, the chemistry student has learned many facts which will benefit him along the pathway to a much better understanding of the world around him.

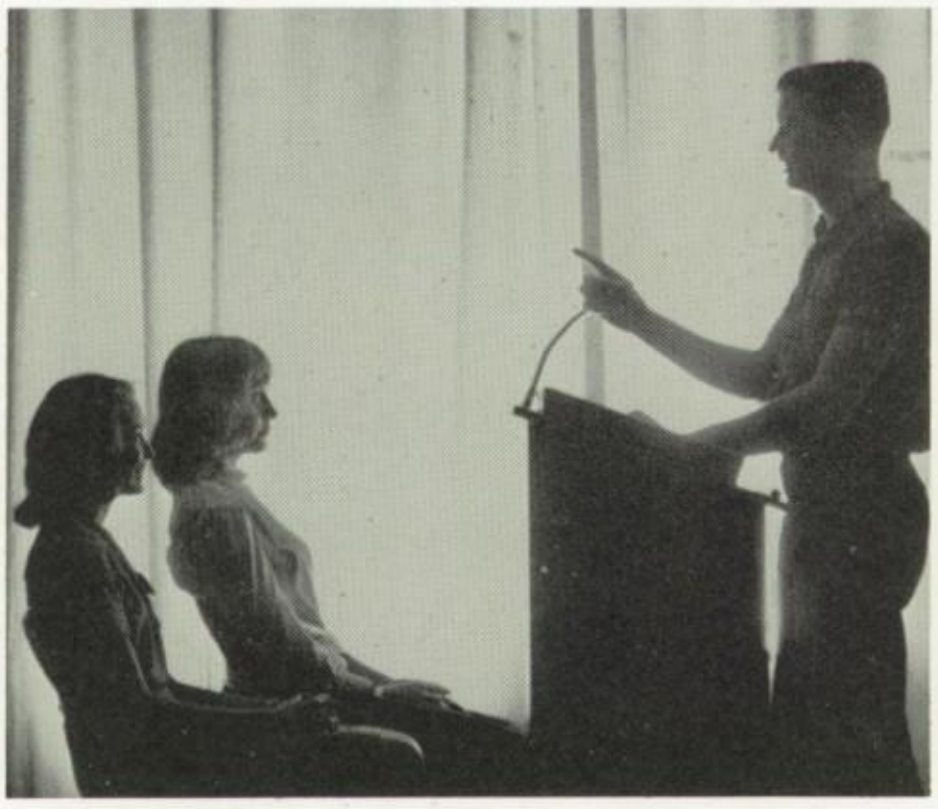


Learning numbers and the new ways of using them is often a tedious and difficult job, but the knowledge learned in the various math classes has given the students a big boost down the pathway to a better understanding of the Age of Machines and Computers.

A library is an important part of every school and we have a fine one here at M.D.H.S. The library contains books on every subject and one can gain a lot just from browsing through the many racks of books. A student can find a helping hand down the pathway of knowledge through books by using his library freely.

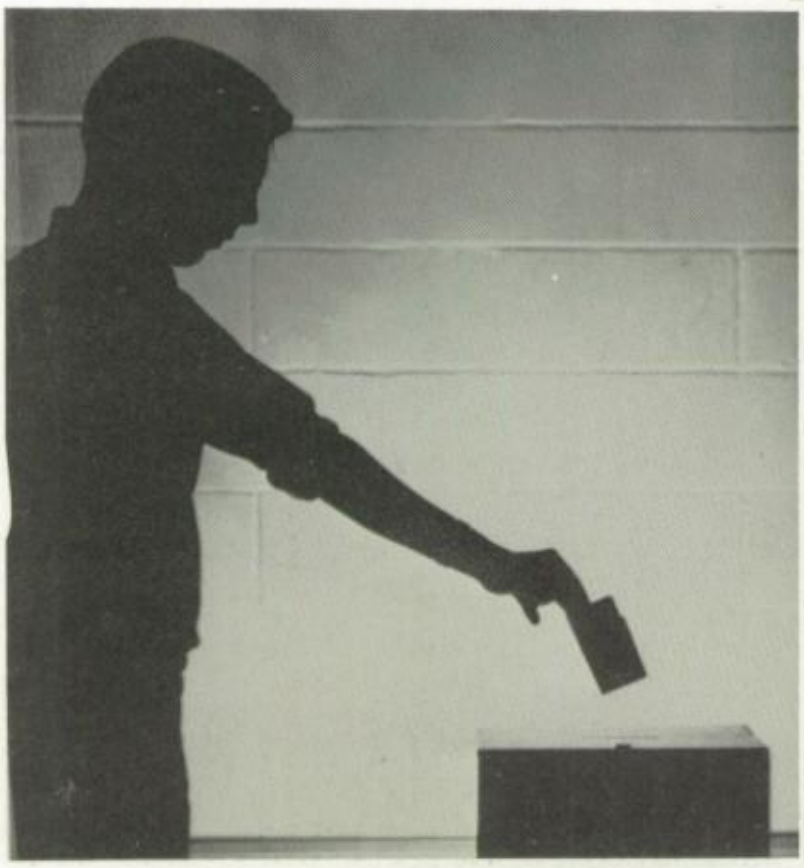
An understanding of the basic structure of our language is essential to being a good student. Our instructors strive to explain and demonstrate the rules of grammar in both English and all foreign languages. Through the efforts of our instructors the students are propelled down the pathway of knowledge.

Gaining self-confidence and poise when asked to speak in front of a group is the aim of the speech class. The instructor explains the art of speech giving, and the ways of delivering speeches. By gaining poise and self-confidence, students are advancing down a pathway leading to social and economical prominence.



Our American heritage is something of which we can all be proud. All of the American history students are taught the background of our economic, political, social and cultural systems. This knowledge helps to guide students down the pathway toward democracy.

Though the world seems to be growing smaller, its history is growing larger. As World History students strive to remember facts of ancient history, they must also keep abreast of the history being made around them. In this way, they are striding down the pathway of knowledge toward the goal of being informed citizens.



Problems of American Democracy, a mandatory course for all seniors, gives an insight into the fundamental differences between Americanism and Communism. This leads students down the pathway toward comprehension of Communism and its goals and the best ways to combat these goals.

Sewing and cooking are a basic part of running a happy household. The traits and facts learned in the Home Economics classes will be of great benefit to the girls when they travel down the pathway of "marital bliss".

Sallie

"A picture says a thousand words" is a saying which means much to our art students for they realize the importance of self-expression. The ability of expressing oneself in pictures as well as in words is a valuable asset on the pathway of life.

Clack, clack go the keys as letters are printed on the paper and knowledge and important facts are printed on the brain. Typing students will be appreciative of these skills as they advance down the pathway toward the business world.

ORGANIZATIONS

Annual Staffs Work Many Long Hours

SEATED: Ricky Litsinger, Jessica Lewis, Linda Harris, LeeLonee Stubble. STANDING: Bill Blair, Hank Dufour, Frank Fralick.

Copy, copy...where is that headline...recount those pictures again...type this over... These are snatches of conversation which were heard daily sixth period as the Stray Leaves Staff tried to put together a book liked by the student body and one that would meet the ever-present deadline for printing.

Learning how to assemble a yearbook isn't the only thing the Literary Staff has learned this year, however. They have found the value of planning ahead, taking responsibility, carrying out assignments, and the art of getting along with fellow workers; for all these ingredients help in forming the best yearbook ever, which is the goal of the staff.

By far the most awaited-for night was the preview party held before distribution day when the Literary Staff saw their finished product for the first time.

But even with all the work and effort, the Literary Staff will in future years take a look behind and remember happily "their yearbook".

o Produce Another Outstanding Book

"A Stray Leaves meeting will be held in Room five." As these words rang through the intercom, staff members knew that once again the time had come to sell ads for the Stray Leaves. Ads were spoken for, student names were taken, and the rush on the downtown area of Mount Dora began. The provision was made that those who sold five ads or more automatically would be made members of the Business Staff. Thus, for many, selling ads was an important task. The Business Staff was responsible for the subscription drive and the ads drive. A colorful chart was made to encourage the selling of ads and subscriptions to raise the necessary money for the printing of the annual. Without the hard work of the Business Staff, the publication of this annual would never have been possible.

The Student Council serves as a sounding board between the student body and the faculty. It is a representative body with school elected officials. The traditional homecoming ceremonies, one of the most treasured activities of the year, are planned by the Student Council. Many students would feel that the day was not complete without ice cream purchased from council members at lunch and after school.

Junior High Student Council

The Junior Council consists of a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and representatives from the seventh and eighth grades. The purpose of this organization is to interest students in their student government and to further their knowledge and understanding of parliamentary procedure.

Led this year by Brooke Goulder, President, the Junior Council has been an asset to the Senior Council and to Mount Dora High School. Each of the members worked diligently in preparation for homecoming and on the campaigns to clean up the campus.

Membership in the National Honor Society, one of Mount Dora's most honored clubs, is based on excellence in scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Members vie to possess these qualities.

Service projects sponsored by the National Honor Society include morning devotions presented over the intercom system, voluntary tutoring in various subjects, and presentation of honorary letters to four deserving students at graduation.

Led this year by their capable president, Janice Robinson, and their diligent sponsor, Mrs. Frances Russo, the National Honor Society has continued its role as an honor and service group.

Future Business Leaders of America

The future Business Leaders of America is organized to develop competent business leadership and to strengthen the confidence of young people in themselves and in their work. This group is organized to create more interest and understanding in an intelligent choice of business occupations. The club also encourages its members in the development of individual projects and in establishing themselves in business.

Hi-Points Staff

Linda Harris, Bernard McCabe, Claudia Baird, Pat Robinson, and Susie Goulder.

From activities on the campus to current events, from events, from editorials to gossip, from sports to jokes - the editions of the Mount Dora Hi Points cover them all. Efficiently led this year by editor Becky Ray, and associate editors Judy Nation and Doreen Geddes, the Hi Points staff has worked hard to make each issue of the paper interesting for the students.

Bernard McCabe served as sports editor, while Pat Robinson and Susie Goulder, business editor and assistant business manager, have taken care of the business angles. Linda Harris and Carol Elliott served as class reporters; Claudia Baird and Linda Harris were production editors. Of course no paper could be edited without typists, and capably filling this spot were Pete Harvey, Doreen Geddes, and Pat Robinson.

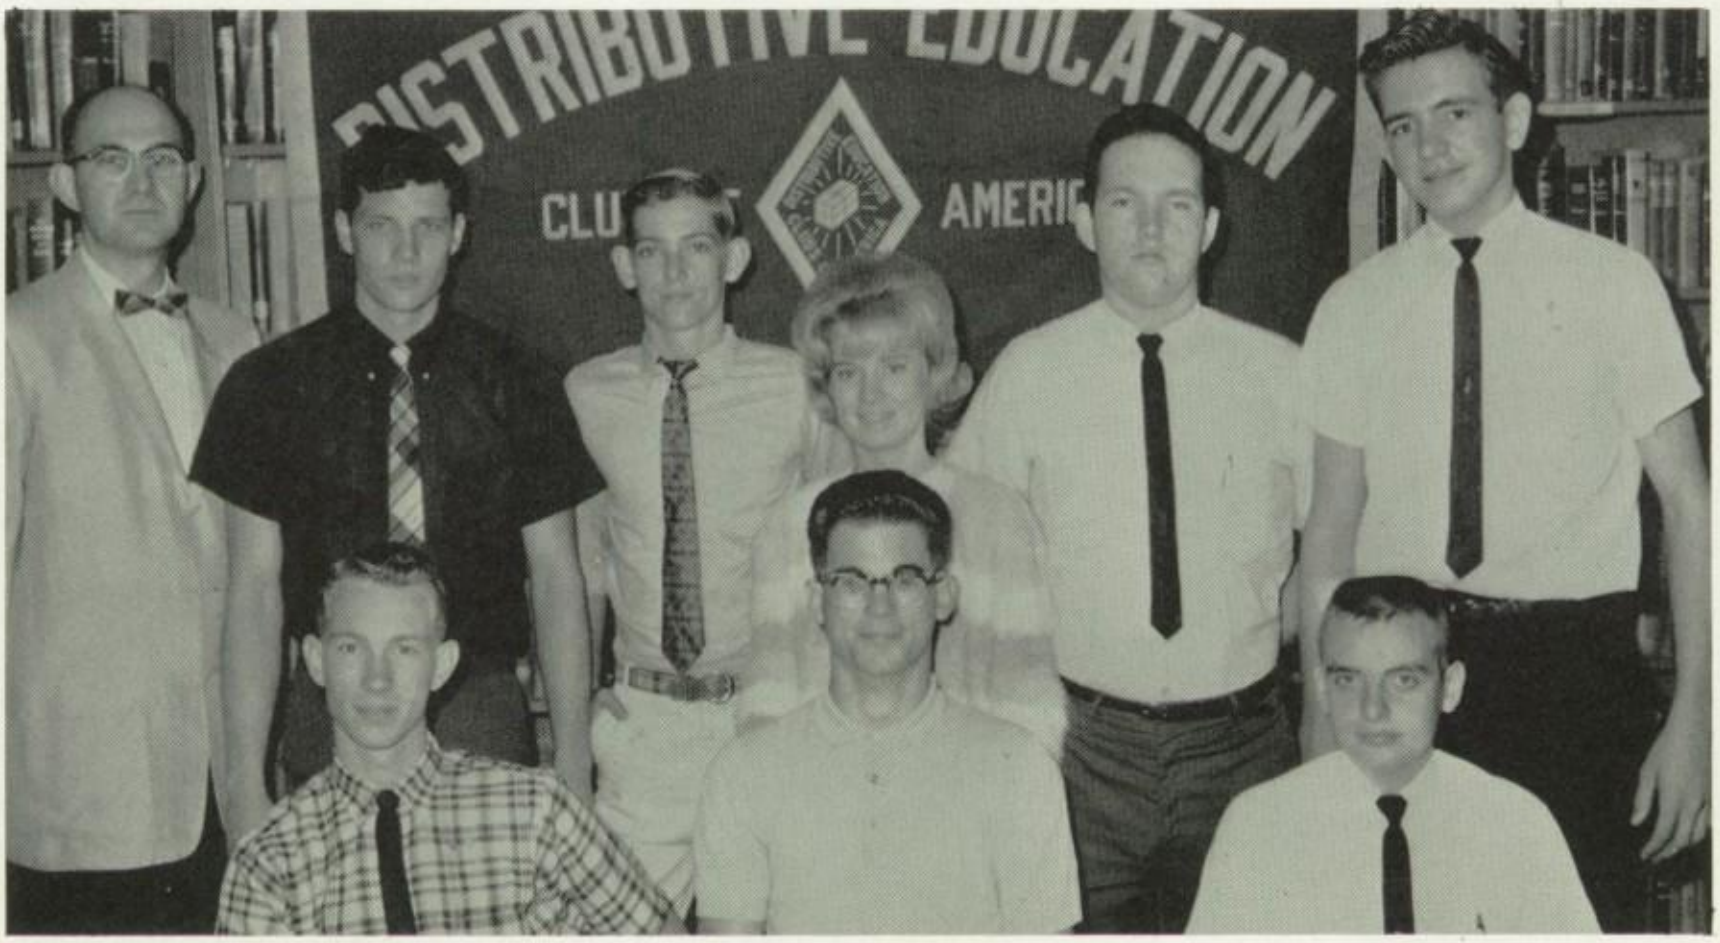
Distributive Education Club of America



SEATED: David Willis, Mike Ward, Tommy Hutcheson.
STANDING: Mr. Puckett, Tommy Rogers, Larry Wade, Violet Aldrich, James Elliot, Sammy Bagwell.

The Distributive Education course is comparatively new in Mount Dora High School. This organization is especially designed for those students who plan to follow a vocation in the fields of distribution. The DECA student is required to have four classes each day. At noon the students begin work at stores and businesses of their choice.

The college bound Distributive Education student may continue his vocation in college and take courses that will help him advance rapidly in his chosen field. Distributive Education is a strong vocational subject and enables many students to continue their education.

DECA students participate in homecoming activities.

ACTIVITIES

Manuel J. Sedano Memorial Band and Majorettes

The Mount Dora High School Band, named after Manuel J. Sedano, the first bandmaster, is now under the leadership of Byron E. Nichols. Joe Paul, the Drum Major, leads the thirty-four member band which includes the five majorettes led by DiAnne Strickland. The band was honored when it was invited to participate in the Gator Growl at the University of Florida in Gainesville. Our snappy band always leads the Homecoming Parade and also marches in the Mount Dora Christmas Parade. The half-time ceremonies at football games is an added feature afforded by the band. Climaxing the year's work is the Spring Concert performance.

Junior Class Play

Grammercy Ghost

March 19 and 20, 1965, culminated the long hours spent on casting, advertising, rehearsing, and directing the Junior Class play, GRAMMERCY GHOST. The curtain rose to present a delightful comedy of a Revolutionary War ghost, Nathaniel Coombs, portrayed excellently by Edward Brooks. The young lady who hilariously inherited Nathaniel is known by all her friends as Glenna Greenwell, but in the play she is known as Nancy Willard. Parker Burnett, otherwise known as John Moon, young Nancy's fiance, does not believe in ghosts, much less one with which his girl can converse. The action is further complicated by Irv and Rocky, played by Joe Lunsford and John Bowman, war cronies of Nathaniel, who often visit him. Mary Ann Tanner, who played Margaret Collins, and Martha Anne Benwell, who was Augusta Ames, both gave outstanding performances. Charlie Stewart, portrayed by Jack Pease, and Officer Morrison, by Jimmy Ellison, gave much spice and variety to the performance. Further comedy was added by the two ambulance drivers, Dody Cox and Denice Rackel, and by the girl ghost, Karen Ober.

Of course, any play could never be reproduced without much help and work behind the scenes. Special thanks go from the Junior Class to Mr. Nichols, who directed the play, and to the stage manager, Steve Farrell. Miss Joan Greenwood gave much of her time and energy as the assistant director. The Junior Class play was an excellent experience in work and fun.

Lots of fun!

Speech Club

"A speech a week" is the assignment of the scholars in the two energetic speech classes. Developing and maintaining poise in public speaking is a contest problem as these students engage in speeches, debates, and plays. With Mr. Nichols as their sponsor, the speech club is active in various countywide speech contests and school endeavors. Another aspect of the club activities which is beneficial to the members is the extensive research work required for most speeches. In this way, learning, work, and fun are blended to produce a profitable experience.

TOYLAND:

Toyland was the theme of the prom presented on the evening of April 4, 1964, by the class of '65. A large Jack-in-the-Box, Carrousel horses, story book animals, and lollipop trees placed about the ballroom depicted the festive motif. The prom colors of red, white, and blue were brilliantly displayed as students and guests danced to the music of the Icemen. The climatic event of the evening was the presentation of the Sophomore skit, "Raggedy Ann and Andy."

Desire to Win Earns Championship

Mount Dora traveled to St. Cloud for the first game of the year. The defense was rock-hard as it repelled two St. Cloud goal line attacks in the last four minutes. Mount Dora, behind the hard running of John Moon and Pete Salmon, won the game, 19-13.

The Tavares game was played on the home field. The offense didn't click until the second half when Tommy Carver and Pete Salmon hooked up on two screen passes to start the offense rolling. The defense turned in a superb job as Mount Dora came out on top 19-14.

The third game was with Clermont on the visitor's field. Mount Dora's offense turned on the steam and the Highlanders were denied a score in the second half by a hard, solid defense. Mount Dora won the game 26-7.

Umatilla was the next stop for the Hurricanes. The first half score was deadlocked at 0-0. Both teams had a hard time getting started and all the scoring was done late in the game. Umatilla's conversion for the extra point was the deciding factor as Mount Dora suffered its first conference loss. This defeat put Umatilla and Eustis in a first place tie with a perfect season.

The Lake Weir Hurricanes were the next victims for the great Golden juggernaut. Hank Dufour scored the winning touchdown in the waning moments of the game as Mount Dora emerged victorious by a score of 13-7.

The Groveland Greenbacks should never have come to town as it appeared that Mount Dora was destined to win from the start. There were many offensive and defensive standouts with Rodney Hill scoring on a forty yard run on a blocked pass. Mount Dora took this game by a 28-12 score and stood in sole possession of second place behind Eustis.

Ocoee was Mount Dora's seventh opponent for the year. Again one point was the difference as Ocoee took the ballgame over a stuttering offense as Mount Dora suffered its second one point loss, 7-6.

Avon Park brought its powerful football team to Mount Dora to face the scrappier Hurricane squad. Hank Dufour's brilliant touchdown run, one of the highlights of the entire season, kept Mount Dora from being shut out by the Red Devils. On this long touchdown run, Hank was hit by eight out of the eleven Red Devils on the field, but he was invincible as he dashed forty-five yards to score.

Mount Dora traveled to the dust bowl of New Smyrna to play the Barricudas. Seeking revenge for last year's homecoming defeat, the Hurricanes handed the Barricudas their seventh straight loss, 20-13.

"Eustis and Mount Dora clash in Mid-Lakes Championship Game." These headlines preceded the Homecoming game with Eustis. This bitter rivalry had an added incentive this year because the championship went to the winner. Mount Dora's inspired eleven fought Eustis relentlessly, and the Hurricanes took the half-time break with a substantial lead. Eustis came roaring back in the second half, but Mount Dora's defense proved strong enough to stop Eustis short of the goal line when it counted. Mount Dora emerged victorious by a 21-20 score. Mount Dora gained the championship with a 6-1 conference record and a 7-3 record overall. Mr. Jesse Dyess, in his first job as head football mentor, coached the Golden Hurricanes to a very successful season and a championship as well. Mr. Dyess came to Mount Dora from Ft. Lauderdale and at once tackled the task of building a championship team.

Coach "Shanks" Hansel

Though the record stands at 9-10, the experience gained this year has made the season a success. The Golden Hurricanes have finished fifth in the conference with a 7-7 record for the year.

The offense of the Mount Dora Golden Hurricanes was sporadic and Coach Hansel had great difficulty in finding and maintaining a starting five. Once the season got under way, the boys began to jell and the team improved with every game. The early season jitters began to be replaced by confidence and the last half of the season proved this to be true. Mount Dora's outstanding offensive beat such notables as Kissimmee, Lake Weir, Clermont, Mount Dora Bible, Tavares, Groveland, and Umatilla, while narrowly losing to St. Cloud, Eustis and Leesburg; Mount Dora made a fine showing in the conference and group tournaments. Overall, the Hurricanes were well-balanced and should create much excitement in basketball next season.

Gene,

Best of luck always (you will probably need it) to a fabulous Sandpiper from your illustrious publicity agent. Your wit (?) and personality will carry you far - all you need is a little more initiative in your studies! I'll always remember all the great times I've had with all of you ("Birthday Cake"; and all those jokes of yours that I don't get).

Gene,
Well, I've managed to sign your annual without loosing it! (I've misplaced your pen but I'll find it!) This year has really been a lot of fun! (especially in Science) I wish I could dear Mrs. Scotto in that cool, indifferent way you do. You're really got what it takes & I know you won't forget all the fun you, Chris & the Hurricane (shut, when my mother had deserted me, when Bobo's he's really Bright! Best of luck to a real sweet guy.

Gene,
Best of luck to a real Good Kid. With your looks, brains, and "LARK" (K.C.'s joke) you will be a big success in the years ahead. I hope you will remember me as well as our great class of '68.
always,
Bebe

Gene,
It sure was great knowing you this year. I hope we can always be good friends. Remember all the talks we've had, sorry I was such a pain, and I owe you a cup of coffee. Best of luck to a wonderful person. I hope you get all that you want out of life.

Gene,

This year is almost slipped away, and soon we'll be mighty sophomores. You've been great with us for two years now, and it seems as though I've known you all your life. I guess without the "Nāta" things I wouldn't be right. I'll never forget you, and all the cool things we've done together especially "Keen CAMPING Trips!" Best wishes and all the luck to a real cool guy.

Your Pal always,

Good luck Maskie

Remember the fun we had. With you around there's never been a dull moment. You've a sure success. Good looks, personality and a mighty class act. '68

Remember all the fun we had with you around. You've been a great guy to know. Give 'em hell next year. Good luck always.

Gene,
You are one of the nicest boys in our grade. That is when you aren't hitting or pinching me! I'm tough - I can take it, but not much. Spanish is boring enough as it is. I can imagine how boring it would be without you to talk to. Don't ever forget me.

Love,
Nancy

Gene,
You are one of the sharpest guys I've ever known. I've enjoyed being in the ninth grade with you & I hope the tenth grade will be as much fun. Best of luck always to a great guy.

Gene,
As you know, of course, you and I are Mr Shotts' star pupils. Maybe you could enter your report card to a museum or something! Are you taking algebra again next year? If you are you must have a strong stomach. Well good luck in the future with everything you undertake.

Gene,

Well, here it is the end of the year and we're almost sophomores, really have enjoyed your friendship this year and hope that we will always be good friends. I think we are going to be very happy at the end of this year and I guess you know why. you don't!! Why, because Mrs. Shotts is finally in the past and we only have one more year with Mr. Shotts! you always have the best of luck in what you undertake. I'll always remember the good times may you always have and hope they will grow on and on.

Gene-
You're a great kid
and a bright future ahead of you. Just remember never to get discouraged with anything, because these days you never win.
One example is in algebra
and science class.
I know we've had our bad times and good times together. I only hope you can erase the bad ones, because
I've already forgotten them.
I truly hope the great Sandpiper go along way, because your music is up to par.
Best Wishes always and try to be good once in a while.

Jane -

(6 pgs)

When and how do I begin to ~~sign~~ your annual? I have only known you for one short year, and I feel as if I have known you all my life. We have had lots of fun this year that I will never forget, and I hope you won't either. Remember the night I went over to Hank's and y'all went riding with us in Joy's car. I don't think I'll ever forget that S - - - B! (I thought I would die!) Remember all the dances that we danced - that was fun! I don't think I would have had as much fun at them if you hadn't been there. Then there was the time the band took an intermission and we went down to your car - with Hank and other people. We rolled all the windows up and ——— ! (I WAS SICK FOR A WEEK! I will never forget the problems I have caused you this year, especially the "big one!" Believe me, I know that it was all my fault and I suffered when you wouldn't speak to me for weeks. I hope that we get everything straightened out between us. Maybe if God sees fit, He will give us another chance, because we are two people alike who don't want to be "tied" down

Gene,

I know I'll never forget this year as being a very discouraging one in some ways but yet a very encouraging one in many other ways. Just think -- only three more years ahead - and we've even got grand ole Mr. Larson to look forward to!

We've really had our differences this past year and I'm sorry I ever stacked it over a trifle thing. I hope you can forget all these things - let them be put to rest. I'll never forget the fun we had in 8th grade and the fun at the beginning of this year. 'member that time you told your mother I ate you's kind?? I do!

Be good - Take care of the Sandpipers and remember me in a good way —

Best of luck To a real swell Pal - Love ya, Ginny
